FOREWORD

The part of the picture of Hollins which we hold in our minds and hearts is symbolized by quiet, shaded walks, by sun and shadow on the quadrangle and by bare trees traced against a winter sky. Serenity surrounds and pervades the whole setting of our lives. Yet this serenity has not the static quality which comes from passive living. Instead it gives balance and steadfastness to lives made up of busy hours filled with activities and interests. We present this SPINSTER as a record of these activities, to hold in concrete form the spirit of this year of our lives. May these pages in future years prove to be "cargoes filled with memories."

DEDICATION

WE ARE PROUD TO DEDICATE THIS "SPINSTER" TO TWO WHO ARE VERY DEAR TO HOLLINS LIFE. THE KINSHIP WHICH WE FEEL WITH THEM IS AS INEXPRESSIBLE AS THE CHARM OF A FRIENDLY SMILE, AS VALUABLE AS THE LOVELINESS OF A FRIENDLY ACT. WE HAVE KNOWN AND APPRECIATED THE SINCERITY OF THEIR INTEREST, AND GRASPED HINTS OF THE SECRET OF JOY IN LIVING FROM THE EXAMPLE OF THEIR GRACIOUS LIVES. WE WANT OUR DEDICATION OF THIS BOOK TO SAY TO CAPTAIN AND MRS. GRAVES THE THING WHICH WE CANNOT SAY:

Thank you for opening your hearts to Hollins girls

CAPTAIN AND MRS. CHARLES O. GRAVES AT THEIR HOME, CLOVERDALE FARM

Freya, Hollins' honorary organization, seeks not only to recognize achievement by choosing as members those girls who have in one or more fields of activity added to the development and to the growing, creative life of the College but also, as a living, active group, to serve Hollins. The ideals which Freya seeks to uphold are the ideals of an organization which every student can feel is a very definite part of herself. Guided always by a spirit of love and fidelity for Hollins, Freya seeks to preserve the best in college life and to strive for the progressive betterment of the whole community.

Cargoes

Cargoes, Hollins Literary magazine, had its beginning in 1879, and today tries to be representative of the best literary efforts of the students. There are four publications of Cargoes a year, one of which is made up of material from the Freshman contest which is sponsored by the magazine and offers as first prize an honorary membership in the Writer's Club. This year Cargoes has published three issues. Plans have been made to incorporate the fourth into a special Centennial Issue for 1942.

A. D. A.

The association of A. D. A. is made up of a group of girls who are admittedly among the craziest and wittiest in the school. A part of this group, too, is made up of some of the notoriously amusing members of the faculty. Its meaning is a carefully guarded secret, and its only aim is to look funny, to sound funny and to be funny. The unchallenged privilege of the A. D. A.'s is the exclusive right to wear purple on Tuesdays.

FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE

Obviously this is more a play of texture than of action. Many things happen but the world outside a woman's college might not consider them important. . . . It is occasionally irrational, but it is not intended for either satire or farce. What the world regards as trifles loom large on the horizons of desperate youngsters. . . . No attempt has been made to offer a transcript of life at any one college.
